John Johnson – Bryan Adams High School

We partnered with adult client to run Fun Run. My client, Roger was 64 years and in a wheel chair. He wanted to run the 5K. So we did. We placed 6th place. He was so thrilled to get his medal.

Service Helping Others (2)

Red Cross
 Helping Communities in Emergency
 Hurricane Katrina

My family went to the convention center in Dallas to help serve food to the people who had to move because of the hurricane. When we got there they had plenty of help but asked us to read to the children. My brother and I decided to act out the story. Before long we had a crowd of kids around us. It was great to be able to distract them from their situation even for a few minutes.
